

Rapid Access List of Resources

Profile

I am a Healthcare Professional, working in the Emergency Department or Paediatric Ward

I want to refresh my knowledge about High Flow Therapy.

Time to complete

Fundamentals 0 hrs, 18 min

Extension 0 hrs, 26 min

Please note: The linked resources below require an elfh account. You can learn how to register on the Respiratory Surge in Children programme page.

Fundamentals:

- | | | | |
|----------|--|--------------------|--------------|
| 1 | High Flow Nasal Canula Oxygen Therapy, at a glance
This infographic is a summary of evidence-based use of high flow. A visual 'quick reference' guide covering the basics to support clinicians in practice. | Infographic | 2 min |
| 2 | Setting up Airvo2
For Airvo2 Users: A video that demonstrates how to set up the Airvo2 device. | Video | 4 min |
| 3 | Setting up Optiflow (OPN)
For Optiflow users: A video that demonstrates how to set up the Optiflow device | Video | 4 min |
| 4 | Setting up Vapotherm
For Vapotherm users: A video that demonstrates how to set up the Vapotherm device | Video | 8 min |

Extension Learning:

- | | | | |
|----------|---|-----------------|---------------|
| 1 | High Flow Therapy – When and How?
A resource for those who want to know more, includes signposting to further publications. | Web Blog | 10 min |
| 2 | High Flow Therapy – What's the evidence
A resource that critically appraises the evidence for High Flow therapy for bronchiolitis. | Web Blog | 10 min |
| 3 | Canula fitting guide – Fisher & Paykel
A more in depth look at correct selection and fitting for the Fisher & Paykel interface. | Video | 6 min |

