All Our Health communications toolkit Testimonials

“Colourful presentation, easy to move around icons and has up to date information to recap and test knowledge.”

Tutor

“Great starting point. Useful information and onward links for more support.”

Occupational Therapist

“Very interesting and important area of medicine that, if tackled, could have a big impact on our public health.”

Doctor in Training

“It’s a fun and interactive way of finding out information that can be later used to help signpost people to important information.”

Medical Student

“I felt that this was a comprehensive and helpful guide which will assist us in our day to day interaction with patients.”

Pharmacy Dispenser

“An informative session with useful information I can put into practice in the future.”

Library Volunteer

“I feel that I have grown in confidence with the knowledge this course has given me. To be able to find information, infographics and policies surrounding public health has been a brilliant learning opportunity and will help me no end as I progress as a student nurse.”
