

Stat and Mand overview of 2025 updates

General background to work:

- Content, including assessment questions, reviewed by nationally-appointed subject matter experts (SMEs) to ensure content is fit for purpose and up-to-date.
- All sessions have been edited to ensure they align to Core Skills Training Framework (England) v1.1.
- Some sessions have been updated to align with new national guidelines.
- All sessions have a new look and feel and have had graphics and images replaced where necessary.

This has resulted in 2 types of updates:

1. Major

Significant content changes:

- new content added
- content changed based on new guidelines
- some assessment questions removed
- new assessment questions added

2. Minor

- Small changes to terminology and wording.
- Some assessment questions removed.

Sessions that have had major updates:

- Safeguarding children level 1
 - Reworded FGM content
 - Allegations against staff item added
 - Removed item on Adverse Childhood Experiences, replaced with a section on Children in Care and Care Leavers
 - Significant amount of text alterations
- Safeguarding children level 2
 - What is safeguarding children item added
 - Allegations against staff item added
 - Significant amount of text alterations
 - Reworded FGM content
- Infection prevention control level 1 (content changed based on National infection prevention and control manual (NIPCM) for England)

- Standard infection control precautions content covered in much greater depth
- Antimicrobial resistance expanded from a single item to having its own chapter with multiple content items
- Removed references to Covid-19
- Preventing radicalisation level 1
 - Removal of data about Prevent referrals
 - Terminology around 'vulnerability' changed to 'susceptibility'
 - New item on the key principles to supporting somebody who may be susceptible to radicalisation – Notice, Check, Share
- Prevent radicalisation level 2
 - Removal of data about Prevent referrals
 - Terminology around 'vulnerability' changed to 'susceptibility'
 - Case studies removed
 - New item on 'Proscribed terrorist groups or organisations'

Sessions that have had minor updates:

- Equality, diversity and human rights
 - Content reviewed by Capsticks and subsequently edited
- Fire safety (reviewed against (HTM) 05-03 guidance.)
 - Several signposts emphasising the importance of the user finding out what their local or departmental procedures are.
 - Content added about what to do if somebody is on fire including the user themselves.
- Health, safety and welfare
 - Common workplace hazards item overhauled
- Moving and handling level 1
 - Content added to highlight potential risks of harm associated with poor moving and handling practices. This includes considering environmental factors and assessing risk before undertaking tasks.
- Moving and handling level2 (eAssessment only)
 - General programme changes only.
- Resuscitation level 1
 - Information provided to prompt people that it is ok to perform CPR on people with breasts
- Resuscitation adults level 2
 - Personal capabilities item reworded so as not to put off people starting basic life support
 - Information on mechanical CPR for pregnant women added
 - SBAR examples added
- Resuscitation newborn

- Personal capabilities item reworded so as not to put off people starting basic life support
- Various changes to Procedure for resuscitation to bring into line with latest Resuscitation Council's 2021 guidelines
- SBAR examples added
- Resuscitation paediatrics
 - Personal capabilities item reworded so as not to put off people starting basic life support
 - SBAR examples added
- Data Security Awareness
 - Within sharing information for secondary care, new content on 'disclosures required by law' and 'disclosures approved through a statutory process' added
- Conflict resolution
 - Content added on 'reactionary gap'
 - Removed references to Covid-19
 - Roles dedicated to preventing and reducing incidents of violence item overhauled
- Safeguarding adults level 1
 - Reworded FGM content
- Safeguarding adults level 2
 - Reworded FGM content